Jesus Is the Way to Heaven

POWERSOURCE

PRAY TO JESUS:

1. Thank Jesus for dying on the cross and for rising from the tomb to forgive and save us.
2. Ask Jesus to remind your family members of his love and his promise of heaven.
3. Ask Jesus to help you tell others about him—and about heaven.

Death is a tough topic, especially for children. It is challenging to explain why people die and what happens to them after they die. Some kids have little experience with death, while others may have had their world turned upside-down by a loved one's passing.

Death is sin's ultimate "sting," but for Christians, Jesus has erased it. By rising from the grave, Jesus "gives us victory over sin and death" (1 Corinthians 15:55-57). Jesus promises to "prepare a place" for us in heaven, saying, "There is more than enough room in my Father's home" (John 14:2).

The concepts of heaven, hell, and eternity are too abstract for younger children to understand, but we can assure them we will always be with Jesus in a place with no sadness or pain. As kids grow older, we can let them know Jesus is the only way to heaven—and any teachings about different paths to eternal life are false. Jesus says, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me" (John 14:6).

During life's trials and challenges, followers of Jesus can find comfort in the sure hope of heaven. Yet we do not need to wait until we arrive there to experience Jesus' presence and peace! He promises to be with us "always" (Matthew 28:20)—a message that children and adults of all ages need to hear often.

Use the ideas on the next page to celebrate Jesus' promise of heaven.

We Have the Hope of Heaven

TEACHABLE MOMENTS

Postcard Perfect

You will need a Bible, postcards or pictures from vacations, pencils, and blank card stock cut in postcard shapes. Look through postcards together and discuss favorite vacation memories.

Say: These places are beautiful, but I know of an even better place. It has streets of gold, no tears or pain, and no night. Ask: Do you know what this place is? Have you ever received a postcard from heaven? Say: No, me neither. But someone who went there has given us a special gift!

Read aloud Acts 1:8-11. Say: When Jesus went back to heaven, he did not send a postcard; he sent the Holy Spirit. The Spirit helps us believe in Jesus so we can go to heaven.

Hand out pencils and card stock. Say: On one side of the postcard, write or draw a thank-you to Jesus for sending the Holy Spirit. On the other side, draw a picture of what you think heaven is like. Close in prayer.

Until children are about 5 or 6, it is best to talk about heaven as a place where they can live someday. Do not try to explain the spiritual or abstract aspects of heaven yet. As children grow, they will begin asking more questions—especially why people go to heaven or hell when they die. If you do not have all the answers, be honest and research what the Bible says. Explain that Jesus wants everyone to live with him forever, and remind kids that people's actions don't send them to heaven or hell. Believing in Jesus is the only way to heaven, and it is his free gift to us.

A Special Place Say: When we are friends with Jesus, we will go to heaven someday. The Bible says heaven is amazing. Have family members use modeling dough to create shapes of what they imagine heaven will be like. Say: Matthew 6:20 says we will have treasures in heaven. John 14:2 says heaven has rooms for many people. Revelation 19:1 says people in heaven shout praises to God. Revelation 21:3-4 says God lives with us in heaven and wipes away our tears. There is no more sadness or death in heaven. It is our forever home with God.

Transformed When you see butterflies, discuss their lifecycle and how that symbolizes our rebirth in Jesus. Say: After a caterpillar spins a cocoon, it begins a new life as a beautiful butterfly. Someday we will die, but when we believe in Jesus, he gives us a beautiful new life in heaven. We will be happy and free forever! Draw or make butterflies as reminders of new life in Jesus.

Headed to Heaven Place a variety of small items on a tray. Say: Look at these items and try to remember them all. Have family members close their eyes while you remove one item. Then have them guess what is missing. Play several rounds. Read aloud Acts 1:8-11. Ask: How hard was this game? What do you think about how Jesus disappeared in the clouds? Why do you think Jesus returned to heaven? Say: Jesus is preparing a place for us in heaven, but he is still with us today, in our hearts. Jesus is never missing.

A Work of Heart On Memorial Day (or when there's a death in your family), make a reminder of people who've gone to heaven. Decorate paper squares, listing one person or group (such as soldiers) on each square. Tape squares to form a remembrance quilt. Say: When people die, we miss them. The Bible tells us a reason to not feel so sad. Read John 3:16. Say: If we believe in Jesus, we will go to heaven. What do you think we will do there? Pray, thanking God for people who have already gone to heaven.

Crown Jewels Make crowns out of construction paper and craft gems. Read aloud Revelation 21:10-11, 18-23. Ask: Why do you think heaven is filled with gold, precious gems, bright light, and no darkness? Read Revelation 2:10. Say: We are children of Jesus the King; we are his heirs. That means we will live in his kingdom of heaven.

“For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.”
