“All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:16-17

- Exegesis means using the words of the text through the lens of their original context
- Eisegesis is reading into the text with a preconceived notion

“I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.”

Philippians 4:13

- Narcigesis is the explanation of the Bible in a way that shows excessive interest in oneself and prioritizes one's own ideas.

How to get true interpretation:

- Read the Scriptures
- Research : resources available; commentaries
- Seek the Relevance

“For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he looks like.”

James 1:23-24

Questions to Ponder:

1. Which one are you doing in your studies?

1. How will you, and help others understand the text's intent?
