Questions to Talk about...

1. What ‘compass’ are you relying upon for direction?
2. Do you treat the Bible like an "owner's manual," "textbook," or "Magic 8 Ball" or a “compass”? Share your experiences and reflections.
3. Can you think of a specific instance when engaging with the scriptures corrected or aligned you with God's intentions? How do you respond to the discomfort of being rebuked or corrected by the Bible?
4. In what ways do you believe the Bible equips believers for every good work?
5. In what areas of your life do you currently feel surrounded by darkness or confusion? How might committing to daily Bible reading, especially using the S.O.A.P. method, help illuminate your path and guide you through these challenges?
