“Sundays Change the World”

“I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.”

Matthew 16:18

Matthew 16:13-18

“When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi,
he asked his disciples,
“Who do people say the Son of Man is?”
14 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist;
others say Elijah; and still others,
Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”
15 “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Matthew 16:13-18

16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

17 Jesus replied, “Blessed are you,
Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven.

18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it

Sundays Change the World
Because We Know Who Jesus Is

Matthew 16:13
“Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, ‘Who do people say that the Son of Man is?’”

Sunday reminds us who we belong to

Jesus Builds His Church Through Ordinary People

Greek word ekklesia, translated to "church" is,
referring to an assembly or gathering of people.

Do you see church as something you attend –

OR

Do you see yourself as part of Jesus' mission?

Sundays Change the World Because Jesus' Church Dignifies Every Person

Genesis 1:26–27.

“Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground.”

So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.”

Sundays Change the World,
When God's People Love Their Neighbors

Acts 4:34–35

"There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales [35] and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone as he had need."

Sundays Change the World
When We Understand
That History Is Still Being Written

Matthew 16:18
"I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

What will Jesus do
through His Church in our generation?”
