Matthew 6:19-21

19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy,
and where thieves break in and steal.
20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven,
where moth and rust do not destroy,
and where thieves do not break in and steal.
21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also”

Matthew 6:33-34

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness,
and all these things will be given to you as well.
34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow,
for tomorrow will worry about itself.
Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven…”

Your treasure and your heart are connected

What you treasure shapes your heart

What are you chasing?

What you chase shows what you value

Matthew 6:21:

"For where your treasure is,
there your heart will be also."

Your treasure shapes your heart

Matthew 6:33:

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

God's Kingdom becomes the framework through which we live our lives

God's Kingdom Changes What We Chase

Verse 34:

“Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

Jesus gives us freedom from anxiety

What are you chasing?

Where is your treasure?

What one step can
I take to put God's Kingdom first?
